141

road side." God even if a blind man should fall into a pit on it. Do you know that you are responsible before part of your dominion then why did you conquer "Mahmud! If you cannot properly administer that sum of money. Then he took immediate steps words of comfort and dismissed her with a large was very much impressed he spoke to the woman for the extirpation of the robbers. When Mahmud heard this bold speech he STORY 87.

THE POWER OF THE CENSOR IN ISLAM

drunkenness. He was going along through the bazar surrounded by his body-guards when by creet enough to leave his dwelling is a state of A great general of Mahmud's army was indischance he fell in with the censor.

example, and by vindicating the honour of the law deter others from insulting Islam in this way. So was he made up his mind to make him a public him with his own hands. he had him taken down from his horse and flogged As soon as the officer knew who the offender general too realizing the enormity of his offence from the consequences of his indiscretion. The founded and dared not rescue their commander The body-guard of the general looked on dumb-the court he had his shirt removed, and found the marks on the whip of his back. He smilled Submitted to the punishment in good grace.

The Sultan was informed of this occurrence and next day when the general came to attend and said, "Dear friend, repent and never in future dare to indulge in what is prohibited by